Dairy Sheep Association of North America

2019 North American Dairy Sheep Symposium, Idaho Falls, ID, USA, November 7-10, 2019

Sponsorship opportunities

DSANA is happy to announce that the 26th Annual Dairy Sheep Symposium is to be held November 7-10, 2019 in Idaho Falls, Idaho! Our dairy sheep symposium is a well-established fall tradition for the entire continent's dairy sheep producers and processors, held at different locations every year (Kansas City, Quebec, and Ithaca over the last three years, respectively) and attracting sheep producers from the Canadian Maritimes to Arizona, and from the Carolinas to the Pacific Northwest. The fantastic success that the Dairy Sheep Symposium enjoys would not be possible without two decades of generous support from businesses and organizations such as yours. Sponsorship contributions will allow DSANA to continue to bring in the best researchers and experts from North America and the world, and to present current information on dairy sheep management and sheep-milk processing.

This year's Symposium features four, ½-day presentation sessions focusing on Labor, Dairy sheep nutrition, On-farm processing, and Dairy sheep flock health (Thursday and Friday, November 7th & 8th); followed by a day of Farm Tours (November 9th); and finishing with an optional Cheese Workshop held at Lark's Meadow Farms (November 10th). The presentation sessions reflect our industry's interests and challenges, as more and more of our producers are facing labor-supply issues, feeding rations formulated specifically for high-performance dairy animals, and choosing to process their own milk into cheese and other value-added products.

The Dairy Sheep Symposium is an annual event that attracts dairy sheep producers from throughout Canada and the US, as well as Mexico and abroad, and which provides a unique learning and networking experience for those who attend. Please consider making your contribution in the form of one of our sponsorship levels below:
